“If we want a world full of innovative, entrepreneurial thinkers, we need to enable and sustain making from a very young age”

Paula Briggs from AccessArt writes about the importance enabling making in schools.

The screenshot shows the Guardian website's homepage. At the top, there is a navigation bar with links for 'free become a member', 'sign in', 'subscribe', and 'search'. The Guardian logo is prominently displayed in the center. Below the logo, a secondary navigation bar lists various sections: UK, world, politics, sport, football, opinion, culture, business, lifestyle, fashion, environment, tech, and travel. A 'home' link is also present. The main content area features a large article titled 'Creating is not just a 'nice' activity; it transforms, connects and empowers' by Paula Briggs. The article's sub-headline reads: 'If we want a world full of innovative, entrepreneurial thinkers, we need to enable and sustain making from a very young age'. To the right of the article is a large image showing a person's hands working on a craft project. Below the main article, there are several smaller image thumbnails. On the right side of the page, there is a vertical sidebar with a 'Goosebumps Kids' section titled 'How I balanced fear and fun'.
