

Alison Dunne

Alison Dunne

Alison enjoys inspiring and supporting young people to engage with art, culture and the world around them whilst fostering development of insights, skills, confidence and creativity.

Alison is a fully qualified Art and Design teacher (PGCE University of Cambridge) and arts education professional. She has a wealth of experience in art teaching and inclusive engagement and participation across both primary and secondary schools, within gallery education and other related learning environments. Alison also enjoys developing and exploring her own studio-based art practice.

Instagram

See Resources Below...