Alison Sharkey

Business Manager

Behind the scenes, Alison collaborates with the CEO, Membership Manager, Trustees, and wider team, fostering a thoughtful and sustainable approach to how the organisation evolves and operates. Drawing on a Fine Art background – studied first in the Outer Hebrides and later at University College Falmouth – Alison brings over two decades of experience helping people nurture their creative practice.

“I’ve always loved living near the sea, and the Oystercatcher has been a constant sentry to my life.”
