Andrea Butler

Membership Manager

Andrea is a longstanding member of AccessArt's management team, helping to shape its vision and overseeing membership services. She ensures a welcoming experience for members and manages membership enquiries, invoicing and payments. She also supports creative website content. As a visual artist, Andrea documents her world through drawing and has taught art, design, and stitched textiles as a visiting lecturer and tutor.

"When I'm out walking and hear the thrush, perched high in the sycamore trees, its song always lifts my heart and brings a small moment of joy."
