

Are you an artist educator, art teacher or teacher who has experience of working with SEND?

Can you help us build more content and evidence of what artists are doing for SEND?

AccessArt posts and teaching approaches are, most certainly, transferable across different settings, ages and abilities, but we recognise that in some SEND settings, teaching has to be sensitively adapted and processes transformed for the learner to explore their creative potential.

If you regularly run sessions or have run one off sessions, why not write a post for AccessArt?

Posts can be very simple to write - good photos can be enough to tell the story, supplemented with a little bit of text. Published posts are shared via our large network and social media channels - so an excellent way to promote and highlight practice. Attached is more info on how to become an AccessArt contributor - we can also pay £42 per post.

The development of resources for SEND is an ongoing priority for AccessArt - so please do get in touch!
