

Cambridge Curiosity and Imagination

Cambridge Curiosity and Imagination is a creative organisation working with artists to play with ideas and make them grow. Together we explore intriguing spaces and ideas so that everyone can discover their own powers of imagination and curiosity. Our work focuses on the creative processes involved and makes this visible through a range of physical and digital resources.