

Teenagers Paint a Canvas with Scolaquip

By Sheila Ceccarelli

Teenagers were given the chance to explore painting on a canvas and committing some of their ideas and experimentations, from a term's work in sketchbooks, into something more concluded.

In this short, one and a quarter hour session, teenagers were encouraged not to lose their fresh and explorative approach, but at the same time, to work on a 'one-off' piece.

This post aims to share some of the experimentation and approaches that teenagers came up with, to help inspire other students to have a go painting a canvas themselves, even if for the first time. Enjoy!

Teachers Battle it Out in Conversation with Marks on Paper

Teachers embarked on an exercise whereby they made marks on paper to have a conversation with a partner. This was a playful and fun exercise and teachers very much enjoyed both the process and outcomes.

Teachers Explore Pattern, Shape & Texture with Charcoal, Graphite, Masking Tape and Pastels

This was the second session in the series and an introduction to pattern, shape and texture with charcoal and graphite, and an opportunity for teachers to break down any preconceived ideas about what drawing is and who drawing processes is for.

Play and Placement: Teachers Explore Approaches to Drawing

This was the third and final session in the series, and an opportunity to play with creative mark-making and explore context and placement as an introduction to larger scale drawing and concepts around installation art.

UK Charity AccessArt welcomes artists, educators, teachers and parents both in the UK and overseas.
