

Tiny Art Schools: The Children's Art School

By Chloe Williams.

AccessArt is creating a body of work to explore, celebrate and promote the notion of "Tiny Art Schools" across the UK. Tapping into existing practice and innovation, we'll be sharing how artist educators are working with their audiences, using community centres, village halls, and private studio spaces as art education labs, and building creative and economic communities of all sizes. In this series of case studies, we'll be showcasing a range of Tiny Art Schools, their different approaches, and what they offer the communities they're in.

The Children's Art School

Chloe Williams is CEO and founder of The Children's Art School (TCAS), a charitable organisation promoting the value of art education for children and young people. Through her school, she is committed to offering extraordinary, hands-on, creative opportunities to children and young people aged 2-18 across West Yorkshire.
