

Drawing from Life with Lance Richardson: 3 Sketchbook Exercises

By Lance Richardson

In the second of a growing collection of resources exploring drawing from life, artist Lance Richardson demonstrates three simple drawing techniques to help you get started in your sketchbook, from overcoming the fear of the white page to using drawing as a tool for exploring close-looking. These exercises are suitable across all ages and educational settings to help you or your learners get started in sketchbooks. Find the first video in the collection here.

Mixing

What We Like About This Post: “I love that this activity introduces students to colour mixing in a fun and interactive way, steering away from the more formal colour wheel and promoting a more intuitive way of colour mixing. The use of sketchbooks also gives students the opportunity to curate their work, nurturing the individuals creative decision making.” – Tobi, AccessArt

Finding Marks Through Drawings Made by Artists

By Paula Briggs

This resource shares a way to introduce learners to the diversity of mark making at their disposal when making drawings. By deconstructing drawings made by artists, we can begin to build our own vocabulary of marks, and start to make our own creative decisions about when to use a certain mark in a particular context, and understand how the marks we choose will affect the final drawings.
