Deborah Wilenski

Deb Wilenski is an independent woodland/outdoor projects leader, Early Childhood educator and consultant, and creative practitioner. She is the author of '37 Shadows – Listening to children's stories from the woods', 'A Story of Smallness and Light', and 'A Fantastical Guide to Hinchingsbrooke Country Park' (with Caroline Wendling). With a background in Biological Anthropology and the Arts, she is inspired by the preschools and infant-toddler centres of Reggio Emilia, the woodland nurseries of Scandinavia, and by projects which value children as makers of culture and meaning.
