

Inspired by Edgar Degas: Printmaking, Drawing & Sculpture at the Fitzwilliam Museum Cambridge with AccessArt

In November 2017, a group of primary school teachers explored the exhibition Degas A Passion for Perfection, at the Fitzwilliam Museum, Cambridge with the museum's education officer, Kate Noble, Paula Briggs and Sheila Ceccarelli from AccessArt.

The aim of Fitzwilliam Museum and AccessArt CPD sessions is to empower teachers to use museum collections and inspire creativity in the classroom. Teachers have first hand experience of looking at great works, with the help of Kate, to inform how to approach looking and interpreting work, combined with a personal exploration and discovery of practical fine art processes with Paula and Sheila from AccessArt. Teachers are encouraged to make creative responses and learn new Art skills, transferable into the classroom setting.

For those who can not participate in Fitzwilliam Museum and AccessArt CPD in the museum, we hope that the resources below will have all that you need to inspire creativity in the classroom, from a distance, inspired by Edgar Degas.

The Fitzwilliam Museum has the most extensive and representative collections of works by Degas in the UK and generously shares images of works via its Collections Explorer which should be a go-to place for teachers with hundreds of great works available to download and use freely in the classroom.
