

Harper Marten

Harper Marten

Harper Marten, founder of The Arts of Aging, is an art educator with 20 years of experience and a Montessori certification. Inspired by a decade of caring for her father, she champions creative self-expression and “process art” to foster resilient connection and curiosity for seniors, families, and professional caregivers.

See Resources Below...