

What is AccessArt?

AccessArt is a unique organisation!

AccessArt is a UK Registered Charity and a member of The Council for Subject Associations. As a membership organisation we rely on the income created from memberships to continue to expand and develop the inspirational resources we share via our website.

- If you are a teacher or educator you'll find our collection of resources will help you plan art lessons and provide ideas, inspiration and guidance.
- If you're an artist working in education, a facilitator or a museum and gallery education officer, you'll find the resources will help inspire and develop your practice.
- And if you are a creative practitioner, we're sure the ideas will help inspire your own practice.

We're proud of our resources which are based upon over 25 years of educational practice and believe by sharing them with you we can all work together to inspire the next generation of creative individuals.

To access the resources you need to become a Full AccessArt Member (enjoy 1 months access FREE, £3.50 a month thereafter, cancel at any time). If you are already a member, please log in using the form on the right.

Use the drop down “All Resources” menu on the grey menu to see what we have on offer. Each month we release some of our resources as free-to-access – enjoy!
