

About AccessArt

What is AccessArt?

AccessArt is a charity committed to furthering the advancement of education in the visual arts.

Find out more about how we work here

See the values we strive to work by

AccessArt is a Membership Organisation

AccessArt members have access to all the resources on the site. Income from memberships is used to develop further resources. Find out more about joining AccessArt.

Who makes AccessArt tick?

AccessArt's fluid and inspirational team, led by Paula Briggs and Sheila Ceccarelli, both graduates of the Royal College of Art, consists of creative professionals and practitioners, educators, designers and crucially the learners themselves. We work in partnership with a number of institutions and organisations, ranging from schools, museums, galleries, to umbrella and advocacy groups.

See the AccessArt Board of Trustees

Paula Briggs

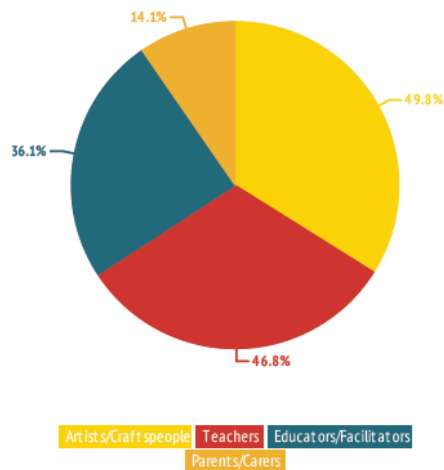

Sheila Ceccarelli

AccessArt Infographic

Who Uses AccessArt?

AccessArt is a UK Registered Charity which aims to inspire and enable visual arts teaching, learning & practice

You use AccessArt for:

click image to load

_AccessArt at a glance – please