Jan Miller

Jan Miller

Jan Miller currently teaches Art, and also Design & Technology, to children aged 7 to 16 at Moreton Hall School, Oswestry, Shropshire. She has over twenty years' experience teaching Art to children from age 3-18 and has never repeated a single project during that time! Inspiration for her projects comes from art exhibitions, museums, art books and having a camera permanently around her neck. Her degree in Illustration ensures drawing is a central feature in all projects. particularly enjoys developing print and mixed media pieces with her classes as it gives children the opportunity to have an individual response. Jan facilitates AG&T children running their own lunchtime club and also manages an after school club.
