

Joe Gamble

Joe Gamble

General & Project Administrator

Joe works across both the membership and creative teams. He supports the creative team with research and development for upcoming projects and helps with administration. He also assists the membership team with administrative tasks, helping to keep memberships up to date.

Joe works as an artist predominantly through painting, printmaking, and drawing, exploring form, space, and place.

“I chose to be represented by a Tawny Owl as I’m always looking all around.”
