Julia Rigby

Julia Rigby is a well-known artist and designer with her colourful and quirky designs appearing on stationery, puzzles and cross stitch kits. She is also Head of Art at St Hilda's – an independent primary school in Harpenden, where she lives. Julia has worked with many schools in the local area sharing her ideas and knowledge to create large scale, collaborative work. She enjoys working with children and adults and runs workshops from her purpose built studio on a local farm.
