

Kittie Jones

Kittie Jones

Kittie completed her degree in Fine Art at Edinburgh College of Art and Edinburgh University in 2008. Her output covers the disciplines of drawing, painting and printmaking. Kittie's practice begins out in the field, work made outdoors aims to capture the intensity of directly experiencing the natural world. She regularly exhibits work throughout the UK and is a professional member of the Society of Wildlife Artists and Visual Arts Scotland. Kittie has taught across the UK, she recently set up the Printmaking Course at Leith School of Art and currently teaches on the Portfolio Course at Bridge House Art in Ullapool and for the National Galleries of Scotland.

Website

Blog

Facebook

Twitter

See Resources Below...