Let Me Inspire You: Rose Feather

<< Back to Let Me Inspire You menu

Illustrator Rose Feather talks about the inspiration she finds in working with others, and shares her tips on how to create your own picture books.

Be inspired by Rose's work or try Rose's

Creating a Book World activity

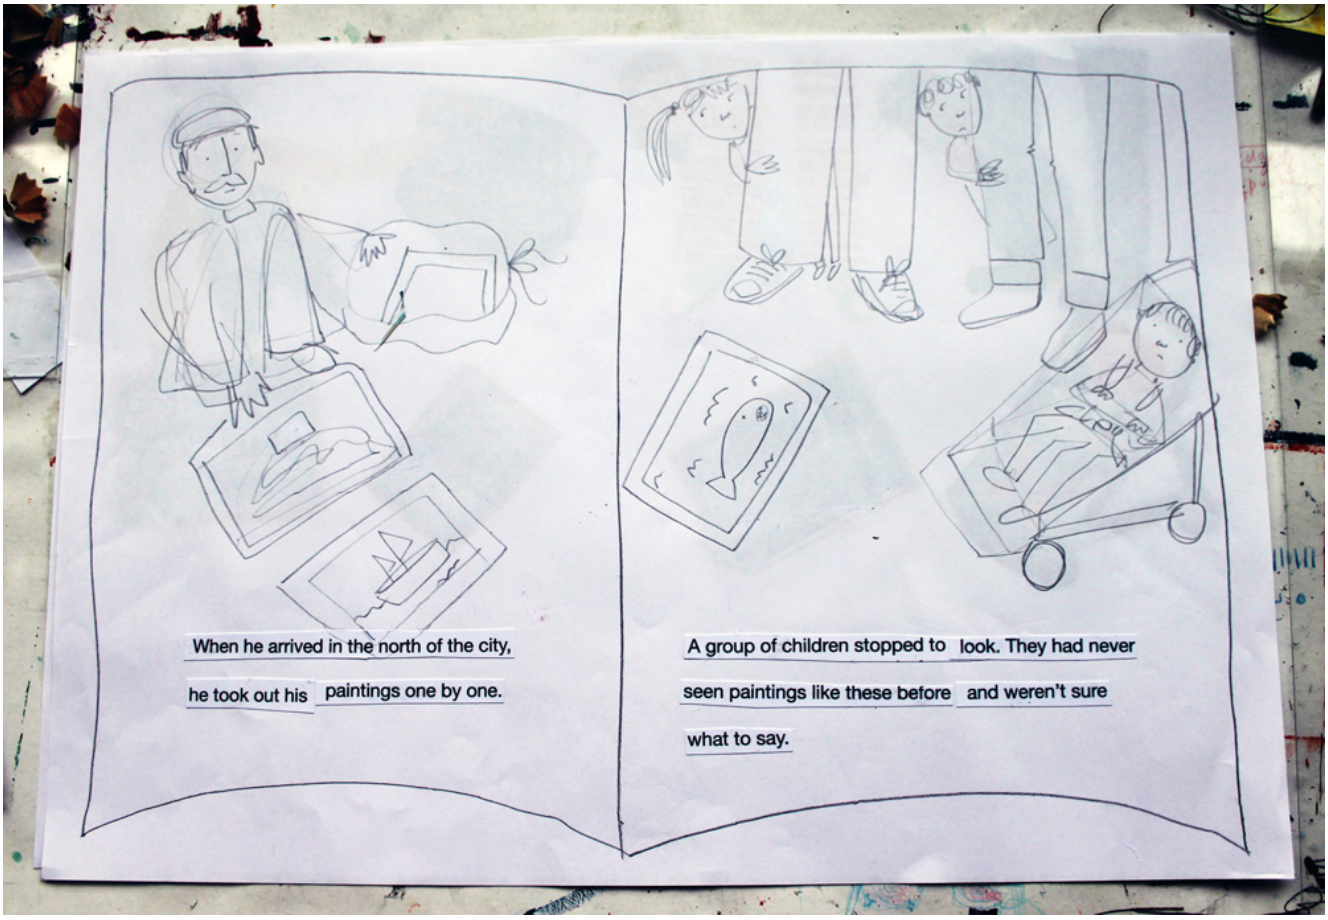

I'm loads older now and tell stories all the time.
This story was quite good, but it'd be better all wonky, back to front and with 16 alternative endings... over to you!
Use these ideas to change up the story, or come up with better ones of your own:
Add in an angry gorilla or a thunder storm...
Take out the lemonade and replace it with...
Give one character a hat in the shape of...
Take away your mum's great auntie's iguana and add...
Throw in a plot twist
Decide what everyone had for tea at the end...
This story was quite good,
but it'd be better all wonky,
back to front and with 16 alternative endings... over to you!
Add in an angry gorilla or a thunder storm...
Take out the lemonade and replace it with...
Give one character a hat in the shape of a...
Take away your mum's great-aunty's iguana and add in...
Throw in a plot twist...
Decide what everyone had for tea at the end...

At first, ideas kept popping up and buzzing about, but without anyone to share them with they quickly lost their sparkle.
Gradually all my stories had fizzled out before they had begun.
Still, keeping things to myself was better than getting it all wrong.
And that felt... alright.
At first, ideas kept popping up and buzzing about,
but without anyone to share them with they quickly lost their sparkle.
alright

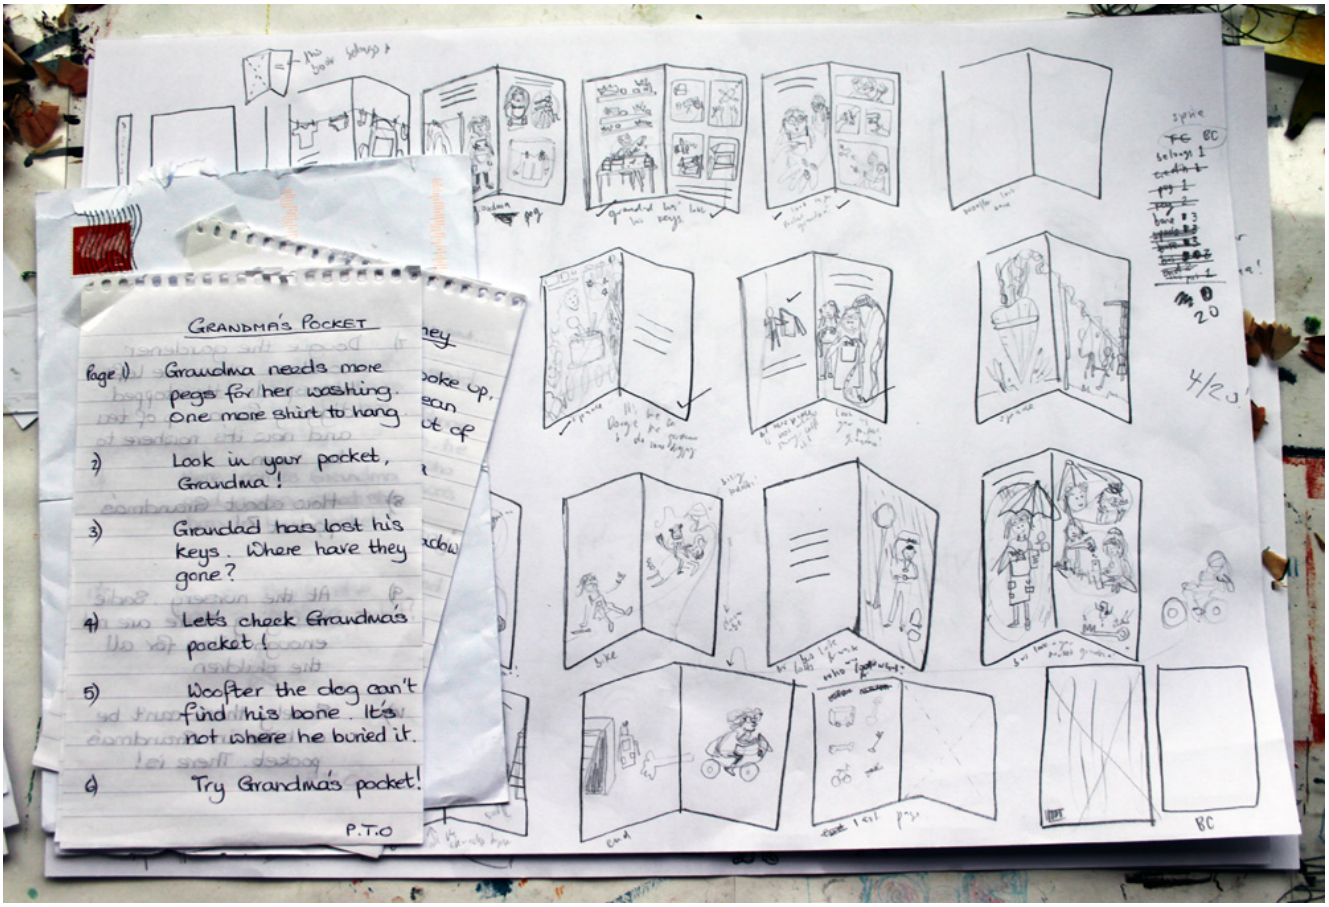

I heard all sorts of things...
you can crush them up and sprinkle them on your overnight oats
I wear them every 3rd Thursday for good luck...
What about the PHONE?! Where will he live
you should have seen the looks on their faces...
I was two jumps from the end and they unplugged the wifi
and then the whole thing burst into pieces!
I heard all sorts of things...
'I wear them every third Thursday for good luck...'
'you should have seen the look on their faces...'
'and you can crush them up and sprinkle them on your overnight oats'
'and then the whole thing burst into pieces!'

books 20th March Adventures
seaside
Fisherman adventure
Story adventures
scary fish face (can you do a scary face?)
groopy fish
happy fish
good morning train
eyes song
we read horray for fish (next week mouths)
laid down on tummy painting
BASHING the shells
splashing shells in water and then putting in rabbit and mould pole pink
Mr seal in the squashy house
red + navy
joggers
rolling whizzing around
sophia alexandra wilfred josie daisy
passing the ball from spade to sieve
soft toy rainbow
blonde
cross at the start
warm jumper blue + white
blonde
pink glasses
pink jumper
twinkle
playing goggles off and on blue + purple ugg boots
enjoyed splashing in!
seaside session #1

When he arrived in the north of the city,
he took out his paintings one by one.
A group of children stopped to look. They had never seen paintings like these before and weren't sure what to say.

When he arrived in the north of the city, he took out his paintings one by one.
A group of children stopped to look.
They had never seen paintings like these before and weren't sure what to say.

Mr Latte
pink hair?

GRANDMA'S POCKET
Page 1) Grandma needs more pegs for her washing. One more shirt to hang.
2) Look in your pocket, Grandma!
3) Grandad has lost his keys. Where have they gone?
4) Let's check Grandma's pocket!
5) Woofter the dog can't find his bone. It's not where he buried it.
6) Try Grandma's pocket!
P.T.O

Find out more about Rose Feather

This is a sample of a resource created by UK Charity AccessArt. We have over 1500 resources to help develop and inspire your creative thinking, practice and teaching.

AccessArt welcomes artists, educators, teachers and parents both in the UK and overseas.

We believe everyone has the right to be creative and by working together and sharing ideas we can enable everyone to reach their creative potential.