Lizzie Lovejoy

Lizzie Lovejoy is a North East based working-class Poet, Performer and Picture Maker who loves stories. They believe that everyone deserves to experience art and everyone has a tale to tell. Lizzie translates narratives that are personal, historical and cultural into various mediums and freely shares their creative work where ever they can. One of their most treasured possessions is a piece of 'fan art' drawn by six year-old Angel in a workshop because she saw Lizzie's make up and knew she "had to capture all of the colours."
