Local Educational and Cultural Organisations, and Individuals

Dedicated individuals, organisations and schools can make fantastic things happen, and we want to help support those actions.

AccessArt is used by many local arts organisations, museums, galleries and schools to help inspire exciting and innovative approaches to visual arts education. Here are a few ways you can support us, and we can support you.

Explore some of the ways we can support each other below, and please get in touch if we can help.

You can support AccessArt by…
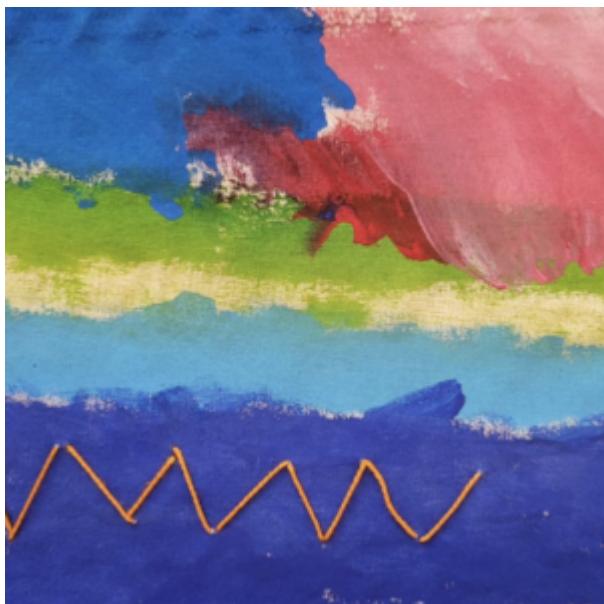

Using the #InspiredBy hashtag…

It makes us very happy when we hear back from schools and arts organisations about how we are helping to shape your practice. Please do tag us with any photos of work created by your pupils/students:

Please consider using the #InspiredBy hashtag followed by the person or organisations name or social media account — and then we can all truly celebrate our collective creativity. Read More about #InspiredBy here.
