Mo manages AccessArt's Instagram presence, sharing creative work and amplifying the impact of the AccessArt Primary Art Curriculum. She liaises with schools and educators to showcase inspiring examples of student artwork and creative practice.

A Scottish visual artist with an MA in Fine Art, Mo's work is a form of personal archaeology, layering mixed media to explore memory and surface.

"I have unruly grey-streaked brown curly hair, so my son chose the Silver Polish chicken for me, as it was 'hairy-headed'."
