

Paint, Colour and Autobiographical Imagery

By Paula Briggs

This week in the artclub for ages 8,9 and 10 we carried on our theme of creating autobiographical work, this time exploring drawing and painting.

The artwork we created was to be used in our autobiographical suitcases/pop up gallery session later in the term. In this session, which was actually spread over two x one hour sessions, I wanted to give the children the opportunity to create work using their intuition and instinct - work which is created through a series of stages without too much blood, sweat and tears!

Using colour and form instinctively

	Please log in here to access full content.
Username
Password
	Login	☒ Remember me
	Forgot Password

To access all content, I would like to join as...

An Individual

Creative practitioners, educators, teachers, parents, learners...

From £3.50

An Organisation...

Schools, Colleges, Arts Organisations: Single and Multi-Users
From £42

AccessArt is a UK Charity and we believe everyone has the right to be creative. AccessArt provides inspiration to help us all reach our creative potential.
