

Paula Briggs

Paula briggs

Co-Founder, CEO & Creative Director

Paula Briggs studied sculpture at Norwich School of Art and later at the Royal College of Art. In 1999 Paula formed AccessArt with her colleague Sheila Ceccarelli. Paula is the CEO and Creative Director of AccessArt.

Paula is a determined advocate for the importance of art, and art education, in all our lives.

Paula is also author of Drawing Projects for Children and Make, Build, Create: Sculpture Projects for Children. You can find her work on Instagram.

"I love watching sparrows – always on the move and happily chirping together in hedgerows. As CEO of AccessArt, I thought hard about how I wanted the bird I chose to represent the qualities I think I can help engender in the team. I do see us as a flock – and I like that sparrows symbolise joy, happiness, resilience, adaptability, freedom, and protection – all words I think can be applied to AccessArt as an organisation.”

See Resources Below...