

Rozi Hathaway

Rozi Hathaway is a comics creator, illustrator and zine maker, from Bournemouth, UK. Exploring themes of culture, imagination, journeys and nature, her aim is to give the viewer an emotive experience; to think about the world around us and how we belong, as human beings.

In her spare time, she also co-runs comics micro-publisher Good Comics. Their aim is to support and amplify new voices in comics. People published through Good Comics are often publishing their comics for the first time.
