

Sara Dudman

Sara Dudman

Sara was Head of Art at diverse schools ranging from an inner-city school in Leicester to a selective grammar school in Devon. She led the secondary art education PGCE at UWE in Bristol. Sara is a practicing figurative and conceptual artist, regularly exhibiting in London and the South West of England. Sara has worked extensively with Gifted and Talented Art and Design education in the South West. She has worked with galleries, museums, arts organisations and The National Trust to create educational resources and lead workshops.

Website

Email

See Resources Below...