

Sculptural Environments Inspired by Hockney

By Natalie Deane

In this project Natalie Deane, an artist and specialist teacher for Primary, Art, Craft & Design at Battye Ford Primary School will show you how to facilitate a project that explores mark making, collaboration and sculpture. In this activity children create a class installation bursting with dynamic marks, beautiful forms and striking colours, all inspired by David Hockney.

---

|  |                                            |
|--|--------------------------------------------|
|  | Please log in here to access full content. |
|--|--------------------------------------------|

|          |                                                                                      |
|----------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Username | <input type="text"/>                                                                 |
| Password | <input type="password"/>                                                             |
|          | <input type="button" value="Login"/> <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Remember me |
|          | Forgot Password                                                      |

To access all content, I would like to join as...

An Individual

Creative practitioners, educators, teachers, parents, learners...

From £3.50

An Organisation...

Schools, Colleges, Arts Organisations: Single and Multi-Users
From £42

AccessArt is a UK Charity and we believe everyone has the right to be creative. AccessArt provides inspiration to help us all reach our creative potential.

---

See This Resource Used In Schools...

