Sue Gough

Born in Lee Green London, 1955, Sue finally realised her ambition to qualify in fine art in 1995. Accidentally falling into teaching after her degree, Sue spent ten years guiding students aged from sixteen to seventy, loving the interaction with students on a daily basis. Sue moved to North Yorkshire in 2005 and has since begun to re-emerge as a practicing artist with a solo show in North Yorkshire and group exhibitions nationwide.
