

Talking Points: Frank Bowling

A collection of sources to explore the work of Frank Bowling.

Please note that this page contains links to external websites and has videos from external websites embedded. At the time of creating, AccessArt checked all links to ensure content is appropriate for teachers to access. However external websites and videos are updated and that is beyond our control.

Please let us know if you find a 404 link, or if you feel content is no longer appropriate.

We strongly recommend as part of good teaching practice that teachers watch all videos and visit all websites before sharing with a class. On occasion there may be elements of a video you would prefer not to show to your class and it is the teacher's responsibility to ensure content is appropriate. Many thanks.

If you are having issues viewing videos it may be due to your schools firewall or your cookie selection. Please check with your IT department.

Frank Bowling

‘Frank Bowling has been hailed as one of the finest British artists of his generation. Born in British Guiana in 1934, Bowling arrived in London in 1953, graduating from the Royal College of Art with the silver medal for painting in 1962. By the early 1960s, he was recognised as an original force in London’s art scene with a style combining figurative, symbolic and abstract elements.’

Questions to Ask Children

What objects would you choose to include in a painting? Why?

How would you describe the way he works in one word?

How does scale impact the way that the artist works?

Questions to Ask Children

How does Frank Bowling's work make you feel?

What do you like/dislike about Frank Bowling's work?

How does scale impact the viewers experience of the work?

Which geometrical shapes would you include in your abstract painting? Why?

Choose one of Bowling's paintings to look at in class:

Ask children to describe the colour palette, movement and texture. If you can see objects on the paintings take a closer look and think about why he might have chosen them.
