"Thank you so much. I can't tell you how excited I am about using your wonderful website & resources! I have been worrying for a while now about our Art curriculum, progression of skills, Ofsted Deep Dives etc. and I now feel so much better! I think this is exactly what our school needs and has been crying out for. Thank you so much." Kate

The AccessArt Primary Art Curriculum

The AccessArt Primary Art Curriculum aims to provide an inspirational approach to visual arts education in primary schools. Our flexible scheme hopes to empower teachers to grow their subject knowledge whilst providing pupils with an exciting and forward thinking art education. The curriculum is supported by a Progression Plan, Sequencing Plan, Medium Term Plans and also introductory videos and past CPD recordings. Please note the pathways are also suitable for schools outside the UK.

Why Teach Art in Primary Schools?

It often feels like we have forgotten why we teach art in schools. It can feel like a hard slog, trying to fit the subject in, and often trying to teach it with little specialist knowledge within the school.

But! In schools where art is taught well, the whole environment buzzes with the creativity, energy and insight which art can bring.

We want to enable all pupils to value their creativity, whatever form that takes and however it manifests itself. That means we provide opportunities for children to explore lots of different making opportunities, as well as thinking creatively and critically about the purposes art serves.

And we also want teachers to enjoy and be confident in teaching art – and we are here to support you in that.

Above, Curtis Holder, Winner of the Sky Arts Portrait Artist of the Year 2020, Series 7, shares how his primary art teachers made such an impact upon his life, both then and now.
