AccessArt has many subscribers from the UK and overseas and we know from your emails how much you value the resources on the site. ## Be Featured on the AccessArt website!

We're also looking for case studies for the AccessArt website, so this could be your opportunity to highlight your excellent practice if you are a school, arts organisation, community group, or individual artist. We will choose case studies which clearly demonstrate an impact made by AccessArt resources upon your practice. Please complete the form below.
