"The 1980s and 1990s were a particularly important time for me. It was the first time I had a solo exhibition that was not just a retrospective of my work but a celebration of my life. It was a chance to share my story with the world and to inspire others to do the same."

"The children in my class have created a series of artworks inspired by the colors of the rainbow. They have used the colors of the rainbow to create a series of artworks." -
