Video Enabled Resources: Printmaking

Printmaking
Explore our video enabled resources created to inspire and enable accessible printmaking

screen Printing Hack

This post shares a simple method for screen printing in the classroom without specialist or expensive equipment
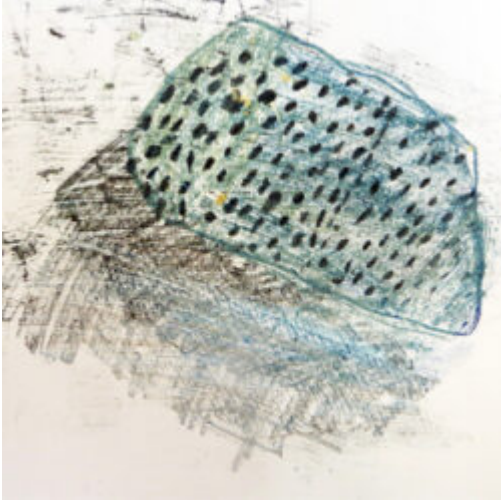

printmaking

In this post printmaker Scarlett shows us in depth how she creates prints using Linocut and Lithography…

kitchen lithography

In this resource printmaker Scarlett shows you how you can create lithography prints using things found in the kitchen.. carbon paper mono printing

Carbon copy paper is a great material for making simple prints with children, and it was perfect for this session on monoprinting…

Monotype

Explore 5 different ways of creating monotypes in the classroom with this collection of monotype resources…

anthotype printmaking

In this post Genevieve demonstrates how we can create our own Anthotype prints using natural handmade emulsions and sunlight…

screen printing t shirts

Screen print your own t-shirts rather than buy them just like our 'Creative Producers'…

EYFS & SEND

Printing with String

In this activity designed for EYFS and SEND groups, learners will have the opportunity to create simple prints using string and poster paint

Repeat Pattern Print Roller

Design patterns using string, work on a 3D surface and use movement to create prints in this activity aimed at EYFS & SEND