

Help us Create a Visual Arts Inspiration Thunderclap!

Help us Share Inspiration

Do you use twitter, facebook or tumblr? If so join our Thunderclap!

AccessArt is running a Thunderclap campaign and we're asking for your help in sharing the AccessArt message of:

Inspiring and enabling creativity amongst children, teenagers and adults through visual arts exploration.

Thunderclap is a crowdspeaking platform and it will help us inspire and enable new audiences.

No money is involved – we just require you to pledge your support to share the AccessArt message in the form of a tweet, a facebook or tumblr post.

We need 100 plus supporters (though of course we welcome many more – every supporter is important!). If we reach our target, then on June 12th at 4.30pm GMT, an automated twitter, facebook or tumblr message will be sent out via all our supporter networks. And that's the AccessArt Thunderclap!

Please don't leave it up to someone else to show their support: instead show your support RIGHT NOW!
