

Welcome to New Members: Primary Teachers – Access Link

We'd like to offer our primary teachers a very big welcome to AccessArt. Please join us at our next Welcome Zoom Meeting on Tuesday October 5th, 4-4.45pm. The session is free to members.

The aim of the session is to introduce teachers of Key Stage 1 and 2 to the AccessArt ethos and share how we can help you plan and develop a creative visual arts curriculum. It will be an opportunity for you to meet the team who can support your journey, plus ask any questions you may have.

We are aware that many teachers join AccessArt as a single user to have a look around the site, before you encourage the school to sign up for all teachers. If this is you, then please feel able to share the zoom link below with another member of the SLT if that is appropriate. (Please note AccessArt membership logins cannot be shared).

To access the session, you must be a full AccessArt member. Pls make sure you are logged in to access the zoom link below. (Please make sure you can login to the AccessArt website before the session so we can help with any password issues).

If you are not a full member and would like to join AccessArt you can do so here.

Once the session starts, please note:

- Participants will be muted on entry. Pls feel free to introduce yourself in the chat, and raise your hand if you would like to be unmuted at any point.
- Please feel able to have your cameras turned on - it helps the dynamics of the whole session if we can see faces and if participants can more easily talk with each other.
- We hope these sessions will be interactive with questions and contributions from attendees - pls feel free to contribute!

These sessions will NOT be recorded.
