

Working with Children and Vulnerable Adults?

When you work with children and young people it is important to have a child protection policy in place (and where appropriate you should ensure this extends to cover vulnerable adults).

You can find guidance from the Charity Commission here.

Download AccessArt's Policy Document here. Please note that this is our working document – you may use this for reference only.

Back to all you need to know about The Brilliant Makers Club.