

Abigail Douglas

“I love drawing, and in particular working with graphite and water colour pencils. I love the contrast of opacity and translucency. I love project-based learning and I think being an AccessArt Young Artist would be a great opportunity to take my practice in different directions.”

AccessArt Resources Featuring Abigail Douglas