

Pooja Mistry

“The main medium that I work with are graphite and watercolours. I would say that I’m more of an illustrator and painter as most of my drawings are in an illustrative style.

I really enjoy watercolours as it allows you to create art freely and the final product is unexpected which allow you to work with your mistakes. Being a Young Artist will help me develop creatively.”

AccessArt Resources Featuring Pooja Mistry