

Year Three Pupils Explore Stencils, Composition and Expressive Mark Making with Oil Pastels

By Sheila Ceccarelli

AccessArt was absolutely delighted to be invited for the third consecutive year to support Ridgefield Primary School, Cambridge with their Art Week.

This year I worked with individual classes delivering a series of short workshops aiming to give pupils a quick flurry of creative activity and some new skills.

The session with the year three class was particularly successful as a quick workshop to explore composition, negative & positive and expressive mark making with oil pastels.

We used minimal, easily available materials including off-cuts of mount board to work on, coloured ink-jet print paper, masking tape, scissors and soft oil pastels.

Pupils were fully immersed in the activity and produced excellent results, which reminded me of works by great modern masters like by Henri Matisse, Joan Miro and Gustav Klimt.

Pupils started by cutting shapes out of paper and laying them onto a piece of mount board

	Please log in here to access full content.
Username	<input type="text"/>
Password	<input type="password"/>
	<input type="button" value="Login"/> <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Remember me
	Forgot Password

To access all content, I would like to join as...

An Individual

Creative practitioners, educators, teachers, parents, learners...

From £3.50

An Organisation...

Schools, Colleges, Arts Organisations: Single and Multi-Users
From £42

AccessArt is a UK Charity and we believe everyone has the right to be creative. AccessArt provides inspiration to help us all reach our creative potential.

You May Also Like...

Pathway: working with shape and colour

This is featured in the 'Working with Shape and Colour' pathway

Talking Points: Henri Matisse Cut Outs

Talking Points: Romare Bearden

...What I have tried to do in my collages is bring the Afro American experience into art and
GIVE IT A UNIVERSAL DIMENSION.