Wednesday 6th May

4.00 pm – 4.30 pm (Via Zoom)

Free to AccessArt Members

Aimed at: Home educators, educators working within vulnerable settings such as CAMHS, ESBA, hospitals, neuroinclusive spaces, nurture groups, care homes, youth offender institutions, extracurricular providers such as galleries, museums and community clubs, teachers and artist educators.

Join us for our next AccessArt Treehouse Challenge!

Discover a fresh, playful approach to drawing in this hands-on, 30-minute practical session that is suitable for all audiences.

In this session, we'll guide you through our Glimpses and Folds Sketchbook Challenge. You'll create a sketchbook filled with a series of drawings made from life. Each drawing folds away into a tiny sketchbook, revealing small glimpses of the moments and objects you've observed and recorded.

Join in with the activity or simply listen and watch along – everyone is welcome!

A list of materials needed will be sent out closer to the event.

This session will be recorded and available to AccessArt Members a few days after the event.

3D Making for the Primary Classroom: Practical and

Sustainable Approaches

Monday 1st June

5.00 pm – 7.00 pm (Via Zoom)

Free to AccessArt Members and Trainee Teachers,
£25 for Non-Members

Aimed at: Art Leads, KS1 and KS2 Classroom Teachers, Artist Educators and Home Educators

In this two-hour practical session, we'll explore how 3D making can support hands-on learning in the primary classroom.

This session will be formed of two one-hour practical workshops:

- An assemblage/montage session using recycled materials, led by Susan Coles
- A sculpture project led by Mandy Barrett, inspired by the work of Bruno Catalano and created using scrap materials

Alongside the practical activities, we'll introduce relevant artists and makers working in this medium and explore how these approaches can support a broad and balanced art curriculum.

This session will be recorded and available to AccessArt Members a few days after the event.

Using Visual Literacy as a Tool for Learning in Primary Art and Design

Monday 15th June

5.00 pm – 6.30 pm (Via Zoom)

Free to AccessArt Members and Trainee Teachers, £25 for Non-Members

Aimed at: Art Leads, KS1 and KS2 Classroom Teachers, Artist Educators and Home Educators

This session will explore how visual literacy can be embedded within the primary art curriculum from an early age, helping children to build confidence in looking, thinking and responding.

Subject specialists Susan Coles and Mandy Barrett will share a range of pedagogical approaches and practical examples to help you develop visual literacy meaningfully within your setting.

This session will be recorded and available to AccessArt Members a few days after the event.
